

Welcome to the Vance minute. I'm Lt Isabel Crump with the Public Affairs Office...

Col. Clark Quinn, 71st Flying Training Wing commander, came together with Col. William Spangenthal, 97th Air Mobility Wing commander, Nov. 21st to sign a Memorandum of Understanding that will allow Team Vance to host two Airman Leadership School classes in 2015. ALS is the first level of professional military education that senior airmen attend upon being selected for staff sergeant. This agreement will bring a few instructors to Vance twice a year rather than send 30 plus Airmen on a temporary duty assignment to Altus, saving tax-payer dollars and promoting the tradition and heritage of the 71st Flying Training Wing.

Airman 1st Class Lizzette Kriner, an aviation resource manager at the 3rd Flying Training Squadron, is the 71st Flying Training Wing Airman of the Month for December. Kriner was selected based on her work performance and merit as an Airman. She is looking forward to attending her first pilot training graduation as part of her shadow day with Chief Master Sgt. Bruce McPherson.

That's your Vance Minute...have a great Air Force day.
